Trying to avoid trouble will keep any man busy.

Successful men possess either ability or nerve.

Women are certainly changeable. Some of them never wear the same complexion twice.

Don't jump to the conclusion that life is a grind just because the earth revolves on its axis.

CAPITAL GOSSIP AND
PROVINCIAL NEWS

Champion Wheat Raiser

Honors have again come to Nick Tailenger, a champion seed grain grower of Claresholm, Alberta. Word has been received at Claresholm that Mr. Tailenger has won first with his exhibit of seed wheat at the Royal Show at Toronto.

Vigorous Liquor Prosecution

The vigorous prosecution of offenders under the Liquor Act continues. Hisdon, of the A. P. P. at Claresholm, secured fines amounting to $1300. in the past week or two in the Pincher Creek, Barons and Stavely districts. Several hotel keepers and a druggist, figuring heavily in the fines imposed. Officials of the Alberta Provincial Police also made a large seizure of 140 cases of liquor at Macleod. Near Olds recently, officials of the Alberta Provincial Police, co-operating with officials of the Inland Revenue Department, who have charge of prosecution of stills, prosecuted three farmers with the result that heavy fines were imposed.

Advertise Alberta Coal

The need of standardization for Alberta coal for outside markets, and the need of education of people in other provinces of the Dominion on the quality and value of Alberta coal, were emphasized at a conference held in Edmonton Board of Trade rooms the past week at which Premier Greenfield, President Freeze of the Calgary Board of Trade, H. Stutchbury, trade commissioner, A. W. Chard, freight supervisor of the Provincial government and members of the Edmonton Board were present.

Conference Postponed

The conference of city mayors and officials on the new City Act drafted for discussion, has been postponed until December 13. The Act drafted by the legal officials of the Government does not embody any government policy in the matter, but is merely the basis of discussion.

Alberta Cattle Winners

Alberta cattle exhibited at the Royal Show at Toronto during the past week received a high standing in the prize list, doing even much better than last year. The steer exhibited from the Provincial Government Farm at Olds stood second in the Shorthorn class, and the university string of animals did very well. The following is a list of winners: Shorthorns, senior yearling steers—J. Walters, Cliver, third; Bertram, Ralphs, Airdrie, fourth. Herefords, senior yearling—Frank Collicutt, Crossfield, second. Shorthorns, junior yearling—J.G. Clark, Irma, First and Champion. The steer exhibited by the Olds School of Agriculture, was second in this class. Charles Yule, of Carstairs, was fourth.

Herefords, junior yearling, Kleskun Ranch, first; Simon Downie, Carstairs, second; F. M. Mace, High River, fourth.

Angus, junior yearling, Juggins Bros., Lloydminster, third.

Shorthorns, senior calves, William Sharpe, Lacombe, second; P. D. Blair, Red Deer, third.

Angus, calves, C. H. Richardson, Bowden, second.

The Natural Resources

The Alberta Cabinet has endorsed the attitude of Premier Greenfield and Attorney-General Brownlee in refusing the offer made by the Dominion Government at the recent conference at Ottawa on the natural resources. This offer was that the natural resources be returned, with a continuance of the yearly cash subsidy for three years. The Alberta Government adheres to its proposal that the cash subsidy be discontinued on the return of the resources to the Province but that the Dominion alienated for Federal purposes compensate Alberta for resources. Though the most recent Dominion offer has been declined, the way is still open for further negotiations.

Premier Greenfield's statement in the matter is as follows:

Negotiations for the turning over by the Dominion Government to the province of Alberta of the natural resources still unalienated were resumed at Ottawa recently, on the invitation of the prime minister, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, following upon a request by the government of this province that negotiations be re-opened.

The position at the opening of negotiations last April was that the provincial government had received a communication from the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, making two suggestions to the governments of the prairie provinces as a basis of discussion and possible settlement: (1) The return of the unalienated resources by the Dominion to the province without compensation for resources already alienated. Present subsidy received from Dominion in lieu of lands to be discontinued. (2) An accounting between Dominion and the provinces from the beginning by an independent tribunal, crediting the provinces with all monies received and charging provinces with all outlay by the Dominion, directly or indirectly, in relation to the management of the resources. Findings of the tribunal to be final. Present subsidy in lieu of lands to be discontinued.

These suggestions were fully discussed at the conference in Ottawa in April last, neither proposal being considered a satisfactory basis of settlement by the representatives of this province.

Separate Settlements

It becoming evident in the development of negotiations that there was small probability of arriving at a uniform basis of settlement acceptable to all three prairie provinces, it was agreed by the representatives of the governments of the western provinces that any of the three governments be at liberty to negotiate separately for a settlement with the Dominion.

Negotiations for settlement on behalf of the province of Alberta alone were then opened by the representatives of this province, suggesting as a basis of settlement, in an effort to get away from the long and costly process of an accounting and arbitration, the return of the remaining resources to the province; the present subsidy to be waived on condition that compensation be given for resources alienated from the province of Alberta for purely federal purposes. Claim principally being made for compensation for 6,400 acres of Alberta lands alienated just prior to the formation of the province for subsidizing the construction of railways outside the province of Alberta; these lands to be capitalized at a figure to be agreed upon and the amount paid to the province over a term of years.

Three Years' Subsidies

Some progress was made along these lines in April last, but on the resumption of negotiations at the recent conference, this suggested basis of settlement did not find favor with the Dominion government, and as a result of the negotiations just closed a uniform offer of settlement was made by the Dominion government to all three prairie provinces as follows: The return by the Dominion to the province of remaining resources, plus payment of present subsidy for a term of three years; any revenue outstanding on Alberta resources to accrue to the province. The representatives of the province of Alberta, however, could not see their way to accept the offer until after consultation with their colleagues. The offer has now been fully considered by the government, and theatives of the province at the conference was endorsed.

The conference at least led to a clearer understanding of the whole question by both sides, and the door is still open for further negotiations. The government of this province still feels that the claim put forward at the conference in April last, that the province of Alberta is justly and fairly entitled to compensation for resources is sound.

Crop Returns

Returns have now been received from a total of 1346 threshers in the province, and these returns place the averages of the various crop yields on the basis of the entire province, as follows: Spring wheat 110.80 bushels per acre, winter wheat 11.20 bushels, oats 20.50, barley 14.60, rye 8.25, flax 4.40. As there are 3700 threshers registered altogether, it will be seen that there are a considerable number of returns still to come in.

School Population

Alberta stands rather well in respect to school population, when compared with some other countries. In 1920 the school population in the schools of the province equalled one-fourth of the population. In the United States in the same year, the school population represented only one-fifth of the population.

Attendance at Agricultural Schools

Attendance at the four agricultural schools for the 1922-23 term now totals 320. There are 146 pupils in attendance at Olds school, 70 in attendance at Claresholm, 53 at Raymond and 51 at Vermilion. Last year in six schools there was an attendance of 331, so that the department is educating almost as many pupils in four schools this term as in six schools last term.

NEW GRAIN DOOR

Mr. H. Avery of Moosejaw, Sask., is showing a very neat model of a miniature box car with a roller bearing steel grain door installed, recently invented by Mr. Avery. The door is constructed of 3-16 inch steel plate and is opened and closed by means of a cog rack and pinion mounted on a shaft and has an operating wheel on outside of car on left hand side of door and is held in position by ratchet wheel. Door runs in a steel groove on rollers inserted in floor of car and also has a top sliding rail to protect door while being opened when car is loaded. The door, when not in use, is completely housed in a frame clear of package or rough freight. To close door for grain or coal loading, one only has to lift lock rod and turn operating wheel to right. Main steel door forces trap door of housing open and top sliding rail is carried across opening with door and is automatically locked in housing and is ready for grain or coal loading.

The new grain door is absolutely leak proof and the inventor claims that he can release a car of grain in thirty seconds. This is considered the greatest saving device ever offered to a Railway Company. Mr. Avery leaves this week for Calgary where the door will be inspected and tried out by the C. P. R. Patents, we learn, have been secured in both the U. S. and Canada.

PASSES, MACLEOD.

David Thompson, who has resided with his sister, Mrs. P. Chugg, of the Howe district, since coming west in 1912, died on Monday night of heart failure. He had been ill for some time past. He was 70 years of age at the time of his death. The funeral ranch, on Wednesday, thence to the Union cemetery for interment.

OUR LITTLE HOME

In a little valley far away,
I remember helping to make hay.
Such a lovely spot with hills around,
Nothing more than love can abound.

There we heard the cowbells ring.
There we heard the birds sing.
There we heard the thunder crash.
There we saw the lightning flash.

We loved to watch the sowers.
We loved to watch the mowers.
All because we were together,
Her and I no one could sever.

In winter we sat round the stove
In summer round the fields we rove.
It was a pleasant life we led.
Together, worked, sang and read.

When our love was at its best,
Alas! she slept her eternal rest.
There came one summer, cruel,
An exception to our rule.

Instead of us two to pray,
I alone, wept all day.
In that spot with hills around,
My love lies buried in the ground.

No more happiness for me.
Weep I when that spot I see.
There I lived the life worth living.
There I gave the love worth giving.

Now I lay me down to rest,
With the one that I love best.
No matter 'tis if earth's between,
Trouble and sorrows 'neath I've seen.

M. Mensaghi.

YOUR BEST

"Give me your best," this old world cries,
"My best's for the one who bravely tries;
Give me your brawn and brain,
Success will follow in its train—
Think what you put in, not what you take out,
The harvest will come without a doubt.

"Give me your best," this old world cries,
"Your best before the swift time flies,
The laggard would grasp before he has paid,
It slips through his fingers, and he is dismayed.

With much leisure and pleasure, he goes on with a laugh,
He reaps a great harvest, but 'tis only of chaff.

"Give me your best," this old world cries,
"My best's for the one who bravely tries;
Polish your talents, till they brightly shine,
Success and fame will be gifts of mine.

Give as bread upon the waters cast,
'Twill return tenfold to you at last."

TELEGRAPH
NEWS TOLD
IN BRIEF

SLAYERS OF CONSTABLE LAW-SON BOTH FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER.

Will Hang at Fort Saskatchewan.

Calgary, Dec. 2nd.—"Guilty." Clearly and solemnly the word broke the oppressive of the court-room at five minutes past eight o'clock to-night, and a few minutes later Emilio Picariello and Mrs. Florence Lasandro were sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Steve O. Lawson, at Coleman, on September 21st last, the execution to take place at the Fort Saskatchewan jail on February 21st, 1923.

Sentence was pronounced by His Lordship Mr. Justice Walsh.

Justice Walsh Concludes.

There was a stifling silence, and then His Lordship said: "Gentlemen, I concur with your verdict of conviction. All through my charge to you, I endeavored to conceal my own personal views and feelings, because I quite capable to decide the guilt or innocence of the accused from the evidence adduced. I felt at the close that the Crown had most completely established its charge, and that a serious miscarriage of justice would have occurred, had a verdict other than the one rendered been given."

Picariello was asked to stand up. His face was stolid and unmoved, and his keen dark eyes were fixed on the face of His Lordship. Asked if he had had anything to say regarding the verdict of the jury, he answered through his lawyer that he had nothing to say.

The Sentence.

His Lordship spoke, "You will be taken immediately to the provincial jail at Fort Saskatchewan, where you will remain until the 21st day of February, 1923, when you will be taken from your place of confinement, and hanged until dead. And may God have mercy on your soul."

Ikey and his small son were walking down the street when the former happened to glance at the boy's boots. "Vot boots are those you have on?" asked Ikey.

"My new ones, father," replied the son.

"Vot, those I paid $1.50 for?" queried Pa.

"Yes, father," said young Ikey. Father was furious.

"Then take longer strides, you young rascal!" he shrieked.

THE EMPRESS THEATRE CURRENT ATTRACTIONS

1922 FLAPPER DE LUXE STAR OF NEW PHOTO PLAY

A flapper extraordinary is the heroine of "Her Night of Nights," the Universal comedy drama starring Marie Prevost at the Empress Theatre on Friday and Saturday. She is a product of the city and her social activities have an alarming tempo, but she is still human enough to fall in love with a "country fellow" who isn't at all her type.

Hobart Henley directed the filming of the picture from a story by C. S.

Montanye which appeared in a popular magazine. Doris Schroeder, adapter of practically all the Prevost vehicles for Universal, prepared the scenario.

Edward Hearn has the leading opposite Miss Prevost. Hallam Cooley, popular juvenile man, plays the second masculine lead, while Betty Francisco, Richard Daniels, William Jane Starr, Charles Arling and others enact principal roles.

The story is centered around New York City, its cafes and notorious night life, its exclusive fashion shops along Fifth avenue, its more or less unregulated clubs and its quiet suburban atmosphere miles out, where one may buy a "bit of a house" for four or five hundred down and four or five years to pay.

It is said that "Her Night of Nights" offers Marie Prevost the exact sort of a role in which she appears to best advantage. It also offers an opportunity for a momentary display of the figure which made her the queen of bathing girl comedies two or three years ago.

SUPERB PRODUCTION IS George Melford's Paramount Picture:
"THE GREAT IMPERSONATION."
By E. Phillips Oppenheim.

George Melford, whose special Paramount productions have a world-wide reputation, is responsible for the superb production of "The Great Impersonation," the E. Phillips Oppenheim story featuring James Kirkwood which will be shown at the Empress Theatre next Monday for two days.

Mr. Oppenheim writes for a big public—probably one of the largest claimed by any English or American author. "The Great Impersonation" is one of his latest tales of mystery, love and intrigue, and it has already gone through several editions. The plot deals with a mysterious mix-up in identities and is concerned with the Great War. There are many extras used in the various scenes which include episodes in German East Africa, the royal court of Berlin and the palatial drawing rooms of an English mansion.

James Kirkwood, the featured player, has a dual role, appearing both as an Englishman and as a German. In the leading feminine role is Ann Forrest, while Alan Hale, remembered for his fine work in the stage play, "Friendly Enemies," is seen in the chief heavy part. The deposed Emperor Wilhelm, is portrayed by Lawrence Grant. Others in the cast are Fontaine La Rue, Bertram Johns, Winter Hall and Truly Shattuck.

ROBINSON CRUSOE NOW SERIAL HERO

Harry Myers Plays Lead in Adventure Film

Crusoe, Pegleg, One Eye, Black Tom, Friday!

You'll see them all in the Universal version of the universally beloved Daniel Defoe story of adventure which has been produced in chapters called "The Adventures of Robinson Crusoe," the first of which shows at the Empress Theatre on Friday and Saturday.

Each famous character was chosen with the strictest attention to two distinct qualifications—his physical resemblance to the Defoe character and his ability as an actor. The result is that each player seems to have stepped from the pages of the adventurous novel to further fascinate readers.

Harry Myers, famous as "The Connecticut Yankee," carries the role of Crusoe with all the dash, love of adventure and vitality that made the original hero popular the world over. Gertrude Olmstead, winner of a beauty contest, plays the leading feminine role. Percy Pembroke, formerly featured in Universal Westerns, plays an important "heavy" role as Crusoe's friend. Josef Swickard takes the part of Crusoe's father, Gertrude Claire is cast as Crusoe's mother, and Noble Johnson plays the part of the faithful Friday.

"HER NIGHT OF NIGHTS" STARS MARIE PREVOST

Rolling Round of Action and Flapperism Marks New Universal Attraction

"Her Night of Nights" is a comedy and made by Universal, which comes to the Empress Theatre next Fri. and Sat.

A rollicking round of action and flapperism is said to give Miss Prevost the sort of role she "shines" in. The story was adapted from a magazine short story by C. S. Montanye. Hobart Henley, one of the headline directors at Universal City, guided its filming.

In the leading role opposite Miss Prevost, Edward Hearn will be seen. Hallam Cooley, Betty Francisco, Richard Daniels, William Robert Daly, George B. Williams, Charles Arling, Jane Starr and others have important supporting parts.

In the production of "Her Night of Nights" the chief beauties among the sixty models associated with Peggy Hamilton fashion revues and style shows of the "Lady Duff Gordon of America" were used in staging an elaborate fashion show. The story pictures the exclusive shops of Fifth Avenue, and the heroine is "the latest thing in models."

—supplies pasted-on action in the suburban districts, brought in by a simple love interest.

AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF HARRY MYERS

Star of "Robinson Crusoe" Now at Empress Theatre Every Fri. & Sat.

Harry Myers, the noted "Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," and now starring at Universal City in "The Adventures of Robinson Crusoe," without the aid of a Boswell on a Universal City publicity department, has come across with a biography that threatens to put Benjamin Franklin on the pantry shelf. This is it.

"My name is Harry 'Sir Boss' Myers, and my present address 'Robinson Crusoe Island,' care of Universal City, Cal. I was born in New Haven, Conn., but my life has been equally divided between New Haven, Philadelphia, Atlantic City, New York, all towns in Maine, including Portland, Cape Cottage, Old Orchard Beach and two years in Texas. ### KIRKWOOD ARTISTIC IN Dual Role of Great Power in Film "THE GREAT IMPERSONATION."

By E. Phillips Oppenheim.

James Kirkwood, featured player in George Melford's new Paramount production, "The Great Impersonation," which is to be shown at the Empress Theatre next Mon., Tues., has one of the most difficult dual roles ever portrayed on the screen.

The skill required in the portrayal of this role will be understood when one considers the fact that Mr. Kirkwood must enact two racial characters with entirely different characteristics—one a German, the other an Englishman.

The role becomes further involved when, as the story develops, it appears that the German has killed the Englishman and impersonates him in Britain, acting as a spy of the Imperial Prussian government just prior to the Great War.

After many thrilling scenes, a smashing surprise develops which is calculated to make the average motion picture fan gasp. It is said this finale is unequalled in interest and dramatic power by any similar situation ever shown in a motion picture. Mr. Kirkwood's portrayal of this difficult role is highly artistic.

This Paramount Picture is an adaptation by Monte M. Katterjohn of E. Phillips Oppenheim's novel. Ann Forrest, Winter Hall, Truly Shattuck, Alan Hale, Lawrence Grant, Fontaine La Rue and other noted players are associated with Mr. Kirkwood in the all-star cast.

Annual Convention Macleod Riding U. F. A. Political League

The annual convention of the Macleod Riding, U.F.A. Political League, or to use its new name, the Macleod Federal Constituency Association of the U.F.A., was held in Macleod on Thursday, November 30th, and attended by members of the organization from every part of the Riding, but owing to the financial stringency the number of delegates was less than one-third of last year's convention, the number being 73.

The sitting M.P., all the members of the Provincial House in the District and the President of the U.F.W.A., Mrs. Sears, were present, but owing to press of business, we regret to note the absence of Mr. H. W. Wood, the Premier and the Minister of Agriculture for the Province.

Mr. H. S. Simpson, of Okotoks, the President of the Association, presided at the deliberations, assisted by the Vice-president, Mr. McFadden, of Macleod.

Of important business transacted must be mentioned the change in the Constitution, which was almost entirely remodelled and the word "political" eliminated.

Twenty-five resolutions were dealt with, three of these dealt with the Constitution and had already been dealt with; two, relating to giving our support to a Wheat Board for 1923, and are recommended to the U. F. A. Convention; two, relating to an amendment to the Lord's Day Act to legalize harvesting and threshing on Sunday, were lost.

Two, relating to the completion of the C. N. R., from Calgary south and west were adopted; one, relating to the increase of Hail Insurance in the Municipal Association be raised from $10 to $15 per acre and that it be optional with the farmer whether he wants $6, $8, $10, $12 or $15 per acre was adopted; one relating to the consolidation of debts and extension of time on these debts, under Government supervision was adopted; two, Act, one of these defining terms of punishment, were adopted; one, relating to the enforcing of the Liquor Act and one asking for inquiry into the basis, function and control of financial credit and the relation of credit to the problem of production and distribution were also adopted together with the usual resolutions of confidence in our leaders, our member and our appreciation of the work accomplished by our last president.

A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mr. McFadden and his committee for the arrangements made for the Convention.

In reporting the Convention we cannot fail to mention the peculiar harmony which prevailed at all times; all the actions were deliberate and free from heat and rancor.

In the evening Mr. Coote, the member for the Macleod riding, gave an account of his stewardship and covered the ground of his activities in Ottawa to an appreciative audience and Mr. P. M. Christopher, from the Rocky Mountain provincial constituency, spoke about the difficulties the miners were laboring under and hoped a way would be opened for the better understanding of the two groups.

A revision of the compulsory labor law in Bulgaria provides that exemption from the labor law may be purchased by not more than 20 per cent. of the subjects liable for service. The income derived from the sale of exemptions is retained by the municipal governments for the development of public works.

DUKE AND BISHOP RAISE GREAT ISSUE

Obscured temporarily by the British elections, the issue raised by the Bishop of Oxford and directed against the Duke of Marlborough will continue to interest a great many Englishmen until it is finally settled. It will be recalled that Bishop Burge debarred the Duke from attending the Oxford Diocesan Conference on the ground that "he had not the full status of a communicant." In other words, the Duke was a divorced man who had married again and, while his remarriage is recognized by the law of the land, it is not recognized by the Church of England, or at least by certain leaders of the church, who regard the Duke as now living in adultery. The Duke's first wife was formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, of New York, who divorced him after they had been living apart for thirteen years. The Duchess shortly afterward became the wife of M. Jacques Balsan, while the Duke married Miss Gladys Deacon, who had been his first wife's bridesmaid.

A Public Affront

The sentiment of the Anglican church being what it is against the remarriage of divorced people, and especially against persons against whom the decree was issued, the Duke found considerable difficulty when he desired to marry Miss Deacon. He might have been married by a magistrate or some other civil functionary, but this was not in accord with the dual ideas. Eventually he found a Scotch clergyman, who performed the ceremony. Shortly afterward he had a long private interview with Bishop Burge, who made clear to him his views concerning the remarriage, and His Grace was then asked not to avail himself of his privilege, as Lord Lieutenant of Oxfordshire, of attending the Diocesan Conference. It is understood that the Duke said he had no intention of going. This year, however, the Bishop, for some reason not made clear, announced publicly that he would not receive the Duke. He has been condemned for this action, because it was said that the Duke did not intend to alter the decision he had arrived at the year before, and had thus been wantonly affronted.

Church and State

The issue is indirectly raised of the relative authority of Church and State for the Duke is the personal representative of the king in the office of Lord Lieutenant, and it is because he is Lord Lieutenant that he has the legal right to attend the diocesan conferences. Had he presented himself, as the King's representative, and had he been rebuffed, a shocking situation would have arisen, but one from which it is to be presumed Bishop Burge would not have shrunk. Nor is the Duke anxious to dodge the question, now that it had been so plainly raised by the Bishop. His solicitors have issued a statement to the press in which they say that the Duke holds the "status of a communicant with the sanction of his parish priests both in Oxfordshire and in London, and with the full knowledge of the proper ecclesiastical authority." It is understood that the Duke means to take legal action to establish his position.

The Divorce Issue

As a result of this incident a crisis may have been precipitated between Church and State on the question of divorce, which is now agitating England. The law of England emphatically says that the Duke of Marlborough is a married man and fit to hold any office in the State. The Church says, with equal emphasis, that there are certain offices which he is not fit to hold, even if appointed to one of them by the King of England. He is deemed a pariah, an unrepentant sinner, and not fit to attend a gathering of county and cathedral clergy. The Bishop takes the ground that it was the remarriage of the Duke that constituted his offence, and not the act which enabled the Duchess to divorce him. Had he been merely divorced he would not have relinquished his status in the Church. The question of the remarriage of divorced persons has not been raised in so prominent a form for a long time. Occasionally certain clergymen have attained certain publicity by refusing to marry divorced persons, and now and then the communion has been refused to divorced persons, but as a rule the parties to these quarrels have not been persons of public importance.

Clergy Divided

The clergy is by no means a unit on the Church's doctrine concerning divorce. Some hold that all divorces are wrong, Lord Hugh Cecil, a leader of the High Church party, being a proponent of this view. Others say divorce is not wrong, but that there should be no remarriage. Others contend that the innocent party to a divorce should have the right to remarry, and it is understood that Bishop Burge is one of these. His opponents point out, however, that the divorce laws of England are so framed that often when two people desire to separate one of them nominally commits the act for which a divorce is granted, even though there is no sin committed. Therefore they argue there should be no distinction made with regards remarriage between the person who brings the action and the person against whom it is brought.

UNSOLVED MYSTERY OF THIRTY YEARS AGO.

Among all proverbs, many of which are poor guides for human conduct, none is more demonstrably false than the saying that murder will out. If this means that the fact that a murder has been committed cannot be concealed forever, it is only approximately true; if it means, as most people understand it to mean, that a murderer cannot eventually be run down, it is false. The fact is, that probably one murderer in four is convicted, and that perhaps not one murder in two is ever put on trial. Two months have elapsed since the finding of the bodies of Rev. Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills on a farm near New Brunswick, New Jersey, and nobody has been put on trial. The probability is that this mystery will never be solved, if it can properly be called a mystery, though most people will be inclined to regard it as a mis-carriage of justice on the part of the local police, who are either bribed or who feared to take action against people of great wealth and influence.

The Fall River Mystery.

In the past thirty years there have been scores, perhaps hundreds, of murder cases in the United States which attracted great attention at the time, but which never were solved. One of the most celebrated of them, which resulted in a trial, but not in a conviction, was the murder of Andrew J. Borden and his wife, of Fall River, Mass., one summer morning in August, 1892. Mr. Borden was a bank president, and a man of wealth. His household consisted of his two daughters, Emma and Lizzie, by his first marriage; his wife, and Bridget Sullivan, the maid of all work. Lizzie was thirty-two years old, and Emma a few years older. Emma was not at home on the day of the murder. Mr. Borden went to the bank at his usual hour but returned home about 10:30, when he was admitted by Bridget, and sat down in the sitting room. Less than an hour before Mrs. Borden had gone upstairs to change some pillow cases in the guest room. A little later on Lizzie told Bridget that her mother had gone out, having received a note asking her to call on a sick friend.

Skulls Smashed.

Shortly before 11 o'clock, Bridget when Lizzie called her in a voice of but had been there only a few minutes went to her attic room to lie down, alarm and told her that someone had killed her father. Bridget rushed out for a doctor but before he could arrive neighbors came in. Mr. Borden's body was found on the lounge of the sitting-room, his skull battered to pieces by an axe or some other sharp, heavy instrument. Upstairs the body of Mrs. Borden was found in the guest room, with the skull similarly smashed. Mr. Borden's watch was still ticking in his pocket, and his wallet, stuffed with bills, had not been touched. Nothing had been removed from the house, so far as could be ascertained. No weapon was found. No evidence of a stranger having entered the house was disclosed, unless the dead bodies themselves were to be considered evidence.

The Daughter Arrested.

A few days after the crime Lizzie Borden was arrested and put on trial for her life. The prosecution based its case largely on the fact that she had an exclusive opportunity to commit the crime. The servant was ruled out, and it was contended that at the hour of the day it would have been impossible for a stranger to enter or leave the house without being observed by the neighbors. The motive was supposed to be hatred of her stepmother. For the murder of her father no motive was suggested. This was a weak part of the case, since a medical examination of the stomachs of the two victims showed that Mrs. Borden had been killed more than an hour before her husband, that she was lying dead upstairs when Mr. Borden returned from the bank. If Lizzie killed her stepmother why should she have also killed her father?

An Acquittal.

Her sister, Emma, stuck to her staunchly. She said that, while Lizzie had quarrelled with the stepmother, their relations for the past couple of years had been friendly. Bridget had heard no quarrels. Statements alleged to have been the effect that Emma had betrayed made after her arrest by Lizzie, to her, were ruled out by the court. A broken hammer, to which was attached a hair, and bearing some curious stains, was found in the cellar, but an expert testified that the hair was not a human hair and the stains were not blood stains. A tiny speck of blood was found on one of Lizzie's undergarments, but the defence contended that whoever committed the murder must have been literally covered with blood. That Lizzie had burned one of her dresses some three days after the crime was alleged, and not denied, but the burning took place in daylight, with no effort of concealment, and witnesses swore that this was not the dress that Lizzie had worn on the day of the crime. The defence contended that only a powerful man could have wielded a weapon as savagely as the slayer. The prosecution pointed out that Lizzie was masculine in appearance and of sturdy build. Her previous reputation was good, though she was given to fits of moroseness. Her friends stood by her. In less than an hour the jury found her not guilty. The mystery remains to this day.

"By the time a woman has reached middle age she has picked up a good many wrinkles," says an exchange. Among them being some which enable her to hide the others.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Johnson and Mrs. Shaver, of Brockett, are in town this week visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McKinnon, of Coleman, were in town on Wednesday attending the Masonic ball given in the G. W. V. A. hall.

Friends of W. Marlowe, who was in a serious accident last week, will regret to learn that he is undergoing another operation on his foot, in the general hospital, Lethbridge, this week.

The Bazaar held by the R. C. Ladies' Aid on Saturday last was a great success. A big array of pretty and useful articles were on display, and the booths were very attractively decorated. The afternoon tea was well attended, while the dinner table was beautifully decorated and contained the "best of good eats." Credit is due the executive and members of the Ladies' Aid for the capable way in which the affair was conducted. Well over $500 was realized. The R. C. Ladies' Aid wish to thank S. Baker, St. Andrews' Ladies' Aid, F. W. Timlick and all those who helped to make their Bazaar such a success.

The annual Masonic Ball held at the G.W.V.A. Hall, in Macleod, under the auspices of the local lodge of A. F. & A. M., on Wednesday evening, Dec. 5, proved to be one of the most successful events of the season. Dr. A. H. N. Kennedy, Worshipful Master, received the guests, while G. C. Raitt officiated as master of ceremonies, and as usual, had a smile for everyone. Great credit is due to J. C. Lambert for the decorating of the hall, which was artistically carried out in the colors of the Order. A buffet luncheon was served under the management of Mrs. C. W. E. Gardiner, the table being tastefully decorated with the musical end of the program was in the hands of Whitaker's five piece orchestra from Lethbridge, and the dance music discoursed was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Dancing was indulged in until the "wee sma' hours," when the tired yet happy patrons of the "Square and Compass" wandered contentedly homeward.

J. T. MARKS.*"Watch Your Feet"*SEED FAIR

The first Seed Fair for many years of the Macleod Agricultural Society was held in the Town Hall, on Friday, December 1st, and was on the whole, considering all conditions, fairly successful.

The number of entries were not so large as the management would have liked, but a large number of the farmers are still busy hauling their grain and had no time to prepare samples for the Fair. The samples that were shown were of excellent quality, fully maintaining the past record of the Macleod district for producing the very finest samples of grains.

The Judge, Mr. W. W. McArthur, of the School of Agriculture, Claresholm, in his able and interesting address, when giving his reasons for the placing of the various awards, spoke of the very high quality of some of the exhibits, and strongly urged the exhibitors to send their exhibits to the Provincial Seed Fair at Edmonton in January. Mr. McArthur brought with him from the School, half a dozen of the second Years' Class, and gave them a practical demonstration in judging grains and potatoes. The boys enjoyed the trip, and appreciated very highly the thoughtfulness of their teacher in giving them the opportunity of such a practical lesson. There was a fairly good attendance of farmers and others and Mr. McArthur's address was very much appreciated by all present.

Several gentlemen were called to the platform by the chairman, Mr. C. Hammarley, and made short speeches. They were Messrs. W. H. Shields, M.P.P., W. Molyneux, U.G.G., Calgary, Hugh Mackintosh, and A. V. Harris.

The following is the prize list:—
Marquis Wheat, 1st, J. E. Taylor,
2nd, Purdy Bros., 3rd, J. A. Edgar,
4th, Hugh Mackintosh.

Fall rye, Jesse Johnson.
Brome Grass, Purdy Bros.

Potatoes, white, 1st, Joseph Horner,
2nd, C. Harrad, 3rd, Hugh Mackintosh.

Potatoes, red, Early Ohio, C. Harrad.
At the close of the addresses, several of the farmers' wives, assisted by town friends, served an excellent buffet luncheon, which was very much enjoyed by all present.

The Allendale orchestra under the leadership of Mr. J. A. Edgar, rendered a number of delightful selections during the afternoon, which enlivened the proceedings considerably, and helped to make the afternoon a most enjoyable one.

The agricultural society is certainly indebted to the ladies and the orchestra, for their willing assistance on this occasion.

RETURNED MEN'S CONFERENCE

The Provincial Command Great War Veterans' Association has called a Conference of Returned Men in Calgary for Dec. 19th and 20th, at which representatives of Returned Men in every district of the Province will be present.

This is not a G. W. V. A. Convention, but a conference of Returned men whether they be members of the G. W. V. A. or not.

The Conference will deal with the problems affecting the Returned Men and especially those affecting the disabled, the widows and dependents.

It is expected that about two hundred and fifty delegates will be present at this reunion.

Any Returned Man interested in the Veteran problems will be made welcome and those desiring to attend should communicate with the Provincial Command G. W. V. A. —208—Oddfellows' Bldg., Calgary.

Flattery is the only cement that will mend a broken promise.

Those who wish to gather roses must not be afraid of thorns.

HARRY MYERS AS "ROBINSON CRUSOE," FIRST EPISODE AT THE EMPRESS, FRI., SAT.

UNCIVILIZED.

An ancient ape once on a time,
Disliked exceedingly to climb,
And so he picked him out a tree
And said, "Now this belongs to me;
I have a hunch that apes are mutts
And I can make them gather nuts,
And bring the bulk of them to me,
By claiming title to this tree."

He took a green leaf and a reed
He wrote himself a title deed,
Proclaiming pompously and slow:
"All monkeys by these presents know"
Next morning when the monkeys came
To gather nuts, he made his claim;
"All monkeys climbing on this tree
Must bring their gathered nuts to me,
Cracking the same on equal shares;
The meats are mine, the shells are theirs."

"By what right?" they cried amazed,
Thinking the ape was surely crazed.
"By this," he answered, "If you'll read
You'll find it in the title deed,
Made in precise and formal shape
And sworn before a fellow ape
Exactly on the legal plan.
Used by the wondrous creature Man
In London, Tokio, New York,
Glenagarry, Kalamazoo and Cork,
Unless my deed is recognized
It proves you quite uncivilized."

"But," said one monkey, "You'll agree
It was not you who made this tree,"
"Nor," said the ape, serene and bland,
"Does any owner make his land,
Yet all of its hereditments
Are his, and figure in his rents."
The puzzled monkeys sat about
They could not make the question out:
Plainly by precedent and law,
The ape's proceedings showed no flaw;
And yet, no matter what he said,
The stomach still denied the head.

Up spoke one sprightly monkey then;
"Monkeys are monkeys; men are men.
The ape should try his legal capers
On men who may respect his papers.
We don't know deeds; we do know
nuts,

And spite of "ifs" and "buts"
We know who gathers and un-meats
'em.

By monkey practice also eats 'em.
Go tell the ape and all his flunkies
No man tricks can be played on monkeys."

Thus, apes still climb and get their food,
Since monkeys' minds are crass and
crude;

And monkeys all so ill advised,
Still eat their nuts uncivilized.
—Edmond Vance Cook.

To Parents

DEAR SIR, OR MADAM:—

I want you to know that I am interested in showing pictures on the screen of the Empress Theatre that are beneficial as well as entertaining to the youngsters of this community.

As you well know, children are particularly interested in screen serials, because of the average child's love of thrills and suspense. Many serials, however, place a great emphasis on gun-play, fighting and torture in order to work up the thrills the child-mind demands. As a result of this tendency there has been considerable criticism leveled against serials. The Universal Film Manufacturing Company has inaugurated a new serial policy with a view of getting away from the objectionable features in screen serials. That Company is making serials based on actual history or on standard childhood literature. One of the most effective of these serials is "THE ADVENTURES OF ROBINSON CRUSOE," adapted from Daniel Defoe's celebrated book.

In an effort to provide screen entertainment for the children of this community which cannot harm them, I have made arrangements to show the "ROBINSON CRUSOE" picture at the Empress Theatre, beginning:—

Fri.-Sat., Dec. 8th-9th

I am anxious to know whether the parents of this community appreciate this step. If it meets with popular favor I will follow "ROBINSON CRUSOE" with other serials based on History, or on similar educational subjects.

Come and see the first episode of "ROBINSON CRUSOE" for yourself, at the same time as your children see it—then let me know what you think of my plan.

Believe me sincere in wishing to co-operate with parents and teachers in providing proper screen entertainment for the youngsters.

Yours very truly,
F. J. CUTLER,
Manager Empress Theatre.

In speaking of ultra-modern young women it is no longer up-to-date to use the term "flapper." They are now called "Easter-Eggs," because they are hand-painted on the outside, and hard-boiled on the inside!

Being good looking is a duty every woman owes herself.

You never can tell. Many a man with a muddy complexion has a clear conscience.

THE WHITEHALL GROCERY

LOCAL & PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. F. Stones and daughter Kathleen of Spring Point, are in Lethbridge, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Risler.

Rev. and Mrs. G. D. Armstrong have returned from Edmonton, where they were called recently by the death of the latter's father.

The concert staged at the Greenhill Grill on Thursday evening, at which the Rev. Father Boltz, former organist of St. Augustin's Seminary, Toronto, and of St. Mary's College, Calgary, was the principle attraction, was well patronized and all who attended were given a rare treat in musical talent. Besides the beautiful playing of Rev. Father Boltz, songs were rendered by Mr. R. Green and Mrs. J. Cranney, and piano and song selections by the Misses Olivier. After the close of the concert a dance was held at which a large crowd attended.—Blairmore Enterprise.

Annual Meeting Women's Institute

The Macleod branch of the Women's Institute held their annual meeting in the Methodist church Hall on Monday, December 4th at 4 p. m. After singing "Oh Canada," the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and business matters discussed.

The officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

Mrs. Russell was unanimously elected President; Mrs. Swinerton, 1st Vice President; Mrs. Tabor, 2nd Vice Pres.; Mrs. Farnet, Sec.-treas.; Mrs. H. S. Bailey, Mrs. F. J. Wall, Mrs. R. J. E. Gardiner, and Mrs. A. Watson, Directors.

Convenors for the Standing Committees: Child Welfare and Public Health, Mrs. O. C. Edwards; Education and Better Schools, Mrs. J. W. McDonald; Legislation, Mrs. Whipple; Immigration, Mrs. Rose, Household Economics, Mrs. Jas. Ringland; Agriculture, Mrs. F. A. Adams; Publicity, Mrs. Dillingham; National Events and Canadianization, Miss A. Hodnott.

Regrets were expressed at the departure of two of the members Mrs. T. C. Dougall and Mrs. H. H. McLean, who are leaving town within a few days.

The next meeting of the Women's Institute will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 16th., and all who are interested are kindly invited to be present.

GAINED 65 POUNDS!

"Five years ago when I was first married, I had wonderful energy. I could be on the go all day long without feeling the least bit fatigued. I had a great appetite and could eat anything. I weighed 147 pounds. I used to be busy every minute of the day and when the day was over, I could go to bed and never waken once during the night. Thirteen months ago my first baby was born. After that my energy seemed to leave me. I was tired all the time. I had to force myself to do my household duties. Instead of being a pleasure as formerly, these duties became a real task. I lost all desire for food and nothing would tempt me. I had to make myself eat. I would go to bed at night and toss from side to side for hours at a time. After a while I would doze off only to find that I had been sleeping for ten or fifteen minutes. Naturally when morning came, not having slept, I started the day completely tired out. I was shaky and nervous. The least noise would startle me and make my heart race along. I could see that my husband was worried. I was losing weight every week and had already lost 54 pounds. I tried all kinds of tonics, but they didn't help me. One night, a night I shall never forget because it started me on the way to health and happiness again, my husband brought in a bottle of Carnol. A friend told him that Carnol had saved his wife's life, so he insisted upon my trying it. Six weeks after I began taking Carnol, my weight increased from 93 pounds to 158, an increase of 65 pounds. And, am I well these days? Every morning I fairly jump out of bed ready to tackle anything and every minute of the day is a joy to me now."

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money. 8-622

LOCAL & PERSONAL

Inspector Mellor of the R. C. M. P., Lethbridge, was in town Monday on business.

Clarence Purcell left Saturday night to spend a few days in Medicine Hat visiting friends.

Mr. Claude Gardiner left on Sunday night for the Old Country where he will spend Christmas. Mr. Gardiner will sail on the "Melita" from St.
John, Halifax, on December 9th, and expects to be away for several months.

Mrs. F. J. Butler and two children left Sunday night for Portage la Prairie, Man., where they will spend several weeks visiting Mrs. Butler's parents. Mr. Butler will follow later.

and Mrs. Butler will return to Macleod with her husband after Christmas.

R. Purcell, J. Davis and Neil Dillingham, spent the week-end at Mr. Purcell's home near Stavely.

Mrs. T. C. Dougall and daughter left Macleod this week for Spokane,
where they intend to reside in future.
Mr. Dougall will follow later.

R. D. Macleod, who has been employed by Mr. O. Inkster, D. and A. L.
S., on Alberta Government Highways,
"Walsh to Crow's Nest Division" has returned to his home in Lethbridge on account of the work being "washed out" for the winter.

Mrs. O. C. Edwards, of Macleod, convenor of the committee on laws of the National Council of Women and president of the provincial council of women, was the guest of honor at an informal luncheon arranged by the Edmonton Local Council of Women in the Hudson's Bay on Wednesday.
Other guests were the out-of-town delegates assembled to wait upon the government in the afternoon. To the interest of all, Mrs. Edwards reviewed the requests which the delegation from the provincial council would present to Premier Greenfield. The luncheon was presided over by Mrs. K. Forbes Reid, president of the Local Council of Women. A pleasing little interlude took the form of an appreciation of her long and faithful services in connection with the organized women, particularly the women's councils of the province. Mrs. Harold Riley, of Calgary, in referring to Mrs. Edwards as a woman of much understanding and letter, presented her with a handsome leather dispatch case neatly fitted with supplies, including a silver pencil and a fountain pen. With this gift went a beautiful corsage of American Beauty roses and fern. Mrs.
Edwards expressed her thanks, and in a few inspiring remarks spoke of the glorious future ahead of everyone, and referred to the Christian like love among organized workers as being of vast importance in promoting the welfare of the Christian nations.

DRY GOODS, BOOTS & SHOES, CLOTHING, ETC.
GROCERIES

Coming events cast their shadows
before us

This trite saying was amply verified the other day. In paying a visit to the Grocery Department

the manager was unpacking some Xmas candies, comprising Fancy Boxes of Chocolates, Xmas Stockings with a miscellaneous assortment of youngsters and adults delights. But what! and among the tempting feast was an heterogeneous and promiscuous display of vegetables, carrots, radishes, turnips, onions, potatoes, bean and pea pods. The most realistic showing of natural vegetables shown, but each was wrapped in tissue paper, yet they were all candies. The Xmas Fruit looked nice and fresh—seeded raisins with the bloom on, currants pineapple and cherries, Sultanias, crystalized pineapple, peels and ginger root, crystal cherries of all kinds, red, white and black, almond paste, dates, apple cider for mince meat and crackers.

The Dry Goods Department

Drew our attention next.

to a big display of Coatings, Blanket Cloth with Velours, Broad Cloth, Homespun, Serges, Etc. They had on display 5 only Serge Dresses in colors, at Eastern Prices. 3 only Coats for women with fur collar. And the largest display of Men's and Women's Hosiery ever shown in Macleod to arrive in a few days. Ladies Silk Camesoles, Bloomers and other goods of the Lingerie class. A big assortment of Xmas Handkerchiefs, Fancy Boxes of Stationery, Girdles, Fancy String Beads, Combs of all descriptions. Every shade of knitting wool with latest patterns. Feather Pillows and Cushions.
Dozens of Handbags at unheard of prices.
